AT Brown & Allen's

That's the Only Kind They Have.

The Humidor Keeps Them Fresh, Too

Coach Cunningham, of Georgia, and his players are ready for their annual football game with Auburn, which is staged at Grant field tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Although some of the men of both teams are not in absolutely the best of shape, the two teams will enter the game in the best condition of the season, prepared for the hardest kind of battle.

This will be the twentieth meeting between the two old rivals. In the nineteen previous meetings, Auburn has won nine, Georgia seven and two have resulted in ties. In these games, Auburn has scored 150 points and Georgia 120 points.

Auburn rules as the favorite in advance of the game, due to their splendid showing all season, as balanced against the four losses of the Red and Black.

The sporting element of the city is leaving the victory end of the game alone and making wagers only on the size of the score. This was the program of the Georgia and Auburn game.

Tech was favored to win over Georgia by the odds makers. The odds makers do not think that Auburn will win.

Auburn will face Georgia with a team that is better than the one that they faced last year. Auburn will face Georgia with a team that is better than the one that they faced last year.

The interesting topic is can Georgia score the majority of the deposits, and on strict odds, the answer would be no, with a capital Y.

No team has been able to cross Auburn's goal line this season, and it is a promising sign that the Red and Black will be able to do so.

Georgia will be able to work as many forward passes as they wish, and Auburn will be able to work as many forward passes as they wish.

WHEAT MADE RALLY IN THE LAST HOUR

Small Receipts at Primary Points Kept Prices From Decline, Due to Lower Liverpool Quotations.

Chicago, November 18.—Sharp falling of receipts at western primary points helped to rally wheat today and to bring it to lower levels at Liverpool. There was a steady close at the same as last night to a decline of 1-2 cent and 1-4 cent, respectively, and oats 1-16. Provisions advanced 1-2 cent, beef tallow 1-2 cent, and lard down to a rise of 17 1-2.

Best prices for wheat were in the last half of the day. The wheat went 1/2 above last night, largely because of the news that the first of the winter primary arrivals for the last seven years were 1,500,000 bushels less than the corresponding period of 1913.

Cold weather increased rural offers of wheat, but the heavy rain and the selling pressure on the December option helped to keep it steady.

Oats held comparatively steady, owing to the smallness of receipts. The market was stronger as a result of covering by

New York, November 19.—The coffee market was quiet here as usual today. Brazilian exchange on London was higher and the few offers reported in the spot and freight market were generally at lower prices than before. The heavy importations by Canadian interests are being put on the market for sale here at a steeply reduced price. The present situation was easier in consequence, with five severes quoted at 6½ and Santos futures at 7½. The market was expected to continue through the voluntary committee which will release a large quantity of stock. December closed at 5.35 to 5.38.
